

Commonwealth

A Concert Supporting
CMHA Toronto

January 24th, 2011
Doors open at 7:30 pm

Regular Admission $15
Students $10

Commonwealth is an exciting new musical endeavour combining the jazz musical talents of Canadian artists Colin Power, Patrick Reid, and Ethan Ardelli with the award winning Tinalley String Quartet.

Presented as part of the Corktown Chamber Orchestra's concert series, Commonwealth will introduce new songs inspired by the lives of people living with mental illness.

The concert will take place at the Little Trinity Anglican Church at 425 King Street East on January 24th, 2011. The doors open at 7:30 pm with an admission fee of $15 and $10 for students. Proceeds raised from the sales of CDs will go directly to CMHA Toronto.

Please share this information with your colleagues, friends and family and with your networks on your Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Please join us for an evening of music, celebration, and awareness. Together we can bring the stigmas that surround mental illness and suicide to an end.

For more information contact:

Paige Souter

CMHA Toronto

(416)789 7957 ext 237

psouter@cmha-toronto.net